What does Article 42 of the SEIU Local 999 contract with Acme Corp. say about vacation time?

Based on the analysis of the provided contract sections, while there is no explicit mention of "Article 42," several relevant provisions regarding vacation time are detailed:

- 1. Accrual of Vacation Hours: Vacation hours are accrued based on the employee's months of service, with specific rates outlined for different service periods.*
- 2. Scheduling: Vacations should be scheduled at the employee's convenience as much as possible, subject to agency operational requirements.*
- 3. Cancellation Policy: Once a non-refundable deposit is made, vacation cancellations are generally prohibited except in emergencies.*
- 4. Eligibility: Full-time employees receive full vacation benefits. Part-time employees receive prorated benefits, and those working at least nine months annually also qualify for full benefits.*

These sections collectively outline the vacation policies, though they may be encompassed under a different article number than 42. Without the exact contract reference, this summary captures the key aspects of vacation time as per the provided information.
